THE BEAUTIFUL MORNING

Use the Subject Index Guide to complete this number story

When I woke up this morning I pulled the curtains and let the ______ stream in the window. I patted the ______ on the head and he wagged his tail. I poured some ______ in a saucer for the ______. I decided to make some scones for breakfast as a surprise for Mum, so I found a ______ book and got cracking. Mum was still asleep. By then it was ______ to go to school. I brushed my ______ and ______ and got dressed. I rode to school on my ______.

It was a lovely day. Bright ______ were growing in all the gardens and birds were singing in the ______. ______ were buzzing and ______ were crawling through the grass. I wished that I owned a ______ so that I could ride “clippety clop” through the fields to school.

Even better, I wished that I owned an ______ so that I could fly to school and swoop high over the mountains like a ______. I wished that I did not have to go to school. I wanted to go ______ in the sea like a ______.