Library Scavenger Hunt

This scavenger hunt is meant as a basic introduction to the Library. The goal is for you to explore and get familiar with the Library and its resources.

You can work in pairs. You may do the questions in any order.

In the Library

• Politely introduce yourself to the school librarian and write the librarian’s name down here………………………………………………………………………

• In the non-fiction section locate the set of books with the Dewey number 821. Which genre is shelved here? ………………………………………………………

• What is the colour coding for the 300s in the non-fiction section? …………

• Are there any magazines available to read, and if so write down a title?
…………………………………………………………………………………………

• In the leaflet trays, name two headings. ………………………………………

• How are non-fiction books filed on the shelves? …………………………….

• Browse through the fiction section and find the books with authors whose surname starts with the same letter as yours. List one title by that author for each of you. ………………………………………………………………………

• Find the Reference section. How many dictionaries are there? …………….

• How are fiction books filed on the shelves? ………………………………….

• The Library, like anywhere else in the school has a few simple rules name two.
…………………………………………………………………………………………

• Who can use the library on Tuesdays? ………………………………………

• In the Reference section, how many sets of encyclopaedias are there? ………

• Name two titles from the Millennium Library section.
…………………………………………………………………………………………

• What is in the centre of the library? ……………………………………………

• Which books are filed under number 599? ……………………………………